Morehouse School of Medicine
Residents, Staff & Students – Blood, Body Fluids, Biohazardous Exposure Flow Chart
CALL OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH SERVICES (OHS) at designated site (SEE BACK)

Complete Incident Report & ensure the SEHS-IC receives a copy.
Sign Release of Information requesting all documents sent to SEHS-IC.
Follow up with appropriate site for Serology results.
Contact SEHS-IC for Follow up.

IMPORTANT NUMBERS TO REMEMBER IN CASE OF BLOODBORNE PATHOGEN EXPOSURE

- Atlanta Medical Center Outpatient Center – 404-265-4322
- Children's Healthcare of Atlanta at Hughes Spalding - 404-785-6815
- Columbus Regional Medical Center - Occupational Health Office, 706-571-1505
- Egleston-Scottish Rite Children's Hospital, Occupational Health Office - 404-785-0413
- Georgia Regional Hospital, Occupational Health Office - 404-243-2207
- Grady Healthcare System, Occupational Health Department - 404-616-4600
- Morehouse School of Medicine, Student Employee Health Services/Infection Control- 404-756-1241
- South Fulton Hospital Occupational Health - 404-466-1204
- VA Hospital Tuskegee Occupation - 334-727-0550, ext. 3898

Needlestick Prevention Tips

- Never recap needles
  - Keep sharps pointed away from the user & others
  - Keep hands behind the sharp tip at all times
- Activate the safety feature of engineered sharp devices as soon as procedure is completed
- Use PPE: gloves, gowns, goggles or mask as directed
- Check procedure trays, waste materials, and Bedding for exposed sharps before handling