

The Atlanta Clinical and Translational Science Institute Community Engagement Research Program (CERP)
Presents:

Community Health Matters

Building Successful Academic and Community Partnerships to Achieve Health Equity

Keynote Speaker:

Derrick C. Tabor, PhD, Health Scientist Administrator/Program Official
National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities
Center of Excellence and Small Business Programs

What: The 2nd Annual CERP Community Partnership Forum will provide participants with the tools required to develop and sustain, successful and mutually-beneficial, community-university research partnerships to increase public health in Atlanta, Georgia and beyond.

Why:

- 1) To identify public, private and community organizations that wish to participate in Community-based Participatory Research (CBPR)
- 2) To forge strong alliances among academic and community-based organizations to accelerate community development and effective research translation
- 3) To provide training workshops on key topics requested by our partners
- 4) To highlight current and previously funded “Best Practices” in CERP community-focused research
- 5) To increase research capacity-building to improve the health of citizens throughout Atlanta, Georgia

When: Thursday, May 28, 2015 (9:00am – 4:45pm) & Friday, May 29, 2015 (9:00am-12:30 pm)

Where: Morehouse School of Medicine, National Center for Primary Care Building, 720 Westview Drive, SW, Atlanta, GA. 30310
