

James M. Calloway—Biography

James Calloway has worked and resided in the Joyland Highpoint neighborhood for several years. He has dedicated much of his time as Director and Consultant for the Joyland-Highpoint Community Coalition (JHCC). One of his major responsibilities included, health promotion with the focus on prevention and early intervention programs. A partnership with Morehouse of Medicine Prevention Research Center emerged, and James became a member of the MSM-PRC Community Coalition Board. In addition he has developed other institutional/agencies and organization support to provide community guidance in the following:

- Georgia State
- Emory
- American Cancer Society
- Joyland Civic League
- Carver High
- Price Middle and Slater Elementary
- Boys and Girls of America
- American Diabetes Association
- Atlanta Southside Medical Center
- West End Family Medicine and Oakhurst Medical Centers
- SPCC
- Atlanta Area Health Education Center
- HUD
- City of Atlanta and the Juvenile Court of Fulton County

James had been involved with the community church of Highpoint, which consist of the senior facility, various community churches and single family homes residence. There were additional program that have been implemented under the advisement of James the “Project Workout” for

High Risk Youth Initiative which is ranked as one of the best in the nation the American Society-Great American Smoke out and the Ford Foundation Parenting with the focus on substance abuse prevention. Just to name a few.

He is currently working on community needs assessment survey to promote senior fitness screening and violence prevention programs.

In addition Mr. Calloway has gained certification in the area of enforcement-PBLE, Georgia Certified, Child Development I and II, Atlanta Area Technical College, B.A.-Alabama A&M, Sociology major, Political Science minor, and various CEU credits—In-services and additional training. James holds extraordinary skills and ability to succeed and provide the community with the necessary tool for success.