

Russell W. Hopson
Chairperson Neighborhood Planning Unit Y of Atlanta
Medical Sales Professional, Amedisys Home Health

Russell Hopson is an energetic and enthusiastic citizen, activist, neighbor and change agent. His work building and developing his neighborhood's South Atlanta Civic League as President led him to higher heights as Chairperson of Neighborhood Planning Unit Y. His organizational skills and ability to harness each individual's passion for change has led to each organization growing and thriving by leaps and bounds. His service has not only been limited to his immediate community as he serves on the executive boards of New Leaders Council of Atlanta, Atlanta Beltline Young Leaders Council, Sustainable Lakewood and Fulton County Constituent Services Task Force. Russell also serves on the Board of Governors for Red Clay Democrats and is the Mentorship Chairperson for National Sales Network, Atlanta Chapter.