

29th Annual

BENJAMIN E. MAYS LECTURE

“Looking Behind the Veil of Urban School Reform”

February 21, 2018
6:30-8 p.m.

Georgia State University
Speaker's Auditorium
55 Gilmer St. S.E., Atlanta

Reception to be held from 5:30-6:30 p.m.
Free and open to the public

ABOUT THE LECTURE

The annual Benjamin E. Mays Lecture is intended to encourage the discussion of issues facing urban educational leaders, as well as honor the memory of Dr. Mays and promote his philosophy of excellence in the education of those typically least well served by the larger society.

GUEST SPEAKER:

Leslie T. Fenwick

Dean Emeritus and Professor of Educational Policy and Leadership
Howard University School of Education

ABOUT THE SPEAKER:

A nationally-known education policy and leadership scholar and former urban K-12 school teacher and administrator, Leslie T. Fenwick is co-founder of the Howard University-American Association of School Administrators Urban Superintendents Academy and a past member of the Harvard University Principals Center Advisory Board. She is the 2011 recipient of the W.E.B. DuBois Award for Higher Education Leadership and is a member of the scholarly advisory committee for the Smithsonian National Museum of African-American History and Culture.

ALONZO A.
CRIM CENTER
FOR URBAN EDUCATIONAL EXCELLENCE

For more information, contact

CUEEINFO@GSU.EDU or 404-413-8070.