

RESEARCH ADVISORY COUNCIL

September 7, 2006

Charge to Council:

- Identify innovative strategies for further enhancing the research productivity of the MSM faculty;
- Discuss and recommend decisions on major research issues;
- Approve policies and procedures related to the research enterprise;
- Assist in the development of an institutional strategic plan for research;
- Review, on a regular basis, the strengths and weaknesses of the MSM research enterprise, as well as the opportunities and threats faced by investigators;

Contribute to the ongoing process of quality enhancement, coupled with the establishment of clear and quantifiable research program goals.

Priority List:

- Incentives
Faculty Development
- Centers and Institutes
Definition and Governance
- Bridging Funds Criteria
Graduate Training